ASHER STUDENT FOUNDATION

MISSION AND RULES OF CONDUCT

MISSION

The mission of Asher Student Foundation is to encourage spiritual growth and the practice of Christian Science healing through nurturing community, supporting home and housing, and inspiring continuous learning and service.

RULES OF CONDUCT

1. Practice and rely on Christian Science for healing and uphold the moral standards of Christian Science.

2. Attend and support the activities of the local Christian Science branch church and CSO on a regular basis, study the Christian Science Weekly Bible Lesson consistently, strive to grow in understanding Christian Science, and rely solely on Christian Science for healing.

3. Support the Asher House Manager in maintaining clean, orderly daily operations as well as the spiritual atmosphere of the house.

4. Work and live harmoniously with fellow residents, using the Golden Rule as a guide.

5. Adhere to the spirit of the Matthew Code (Matt 18:15-17): in the event of a conflict speak directly to the other person and, if there is no response, ask for help or support from the House Manager. The goal is healing and reconciliation.

6. Support and participate in Asher House and community service (“Asher-in-Action”) activities.

7. Abstain from the use of medication, alcohol, tobacco, drugs, profanity, gambling, premarital sex and cohabitation during the term of your resident agreement with Asher Student Foundation.

8. Never harass or discriminate against any other resident or ASF personnel, and report immediately to the House Manager any incident of harassment or discrimination which you witness or learn of.

9. When using the internet, via the Wi-Fi provided by ASF or otherwise, do not access, download, or forward pornographic material, and do not download, disseminate or forward violent, sexist, racist, abusive, or other inappropriate messages or media.

10. Adhere to the policy that all persons with or without ASF affiliation are strictly prohibited from storing, keeping, maintaining or bringing onto the Asher House premises any firearms, explosives, fireworks, or dangerous weapons in anycapacity.
